FACULTY OF APPLIED SCIENCE & ENGINEERING

Job Posting – Course Instructor
MAT187: Calculus II
Summer Term 2024 (May –June)
CUPE 3902 Unit-1

The Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering at the University of Toronto seeks one Course Instructor for the MAT187: Calculus II course from May 01 to June 30, 2024.

Topics include: This course focuses on the fundamental tools of calculus and its connections to engineering. The topics include methods of integration, an introduction to differential equations, series and Taylor series, vector differentiation, and partial differentiation. Problems combining calculus with geometry, linear algebra, statics, and mechanics will be examined.

Qualifications: We are looking for an applicant with at least a M.Sc. in either Mathematics or Engineering, with experience teaching first-year engineering calculus. The applicant should be very comfortable working with Quercus and be able to handle administrative duties that use its applications. This course is scheduled to be offered in person. Previous experience is the more relevant criterion than the need to acquire experience in respect of this posted position.

Duties include:

- Delivering the lectures and tutorials (with Teaching Assistant) throughout the summer term May 01 – June 30, 2024
- Providing scheduled office hours for students
- Setting assignments, midterm, and final exam
- Coordinating the work of the course teaching assistants
- Grading final examination papers
