

Dean's Undergraduate Student Summer Research Pivot Fellowship

2024 Call for Applications

The 2024 Dean's Undergraduate Student Summer Research Pivot Fellowship competition is open for applications. These awards recognize academic merit and are intended to support research projects where students are co-supervised (i.e., collaborative projects between two University of Toronto faculty members where at least one faculty member must be from the Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering). Existing collaborative projects are eligible; however, preference will be given to new collaborations. Supervisors must be faculty members; post-doctoral fellows and graduate students will not be considered as co-supervisors.

For more information, applicants are encouraged to contact Jennifer Banh, Undergraduate Research and International Experience Coordinator (URIE@engineering.utoronto.ca).

Total Award Value: $8,000 CAD, tenable at U of T (paid in Canadian funds). Each award is valued at $6,000 CAD; supervisors must contribute an additional $2,000 CAD.

Term: Summer 2024; 12 to 16 weeks (May to August)

Awards to be allocated: Up to 8 fellowships will be awarded during this year's competition.

Award Criteria:

- Recipients must not hold any other summer research stipend or fellowship support.
- Recipients are also expected to actively participate in the FASE Undergraduate Summer Research Program \(USRP\) between May to August and present their research at the Undergraduate Engineering Research Day \(UnERD\) Conference (expected to take place in mid-to-late August 2024).
- Recipients will be required to submit a one-page report on the research project and their contributions to the Dean of Engineering at the end of summer.

Eligibility: All undergraduate students, international and domestic, are eligible to apply. Students currently on PEY are eligible pending completion of their position by April 30th, 2024. Successful international candidates must hold a valid student visa for the duration of the fellowship.

Application Due Date: ~~Monday, March 18th, 2024, 11:59pm ET~~ extended to Friday, March 22nd, 2024 at 11:59pm ET

Application Process:

Your application package must include the following, combined in one single PDF document:

- Completed Application Form (see below)
- Current CV
- Academic History – unofficial print-out from ACORN (your name must be visible on the ACORN print-out)

Applicants must submit their application package as a single PDF document online at <https://forms.office.com/r/SP7h78VuTJ> before the deadline on Friday, March 22nd, 2024 at 11:59pm ET. Note: incomplete applications will not be considered.

Award Notification: Selected recipients will be notified by Monday, April 8, 2024.
